

Announcement of Tsukuba Global Science Week (TGSW) 2021

We are pleased to inform you that the Tsukuba Global Science Week (TGSW) 2021 will be held by the University of Tsukuba, Japan. The TGSW is an international conference which aims to build an international network of collaboration and disseminate solutions to "global issues" from Tsukuba to the world.

The TGSW 2021, the 11th time in total, will be held online.

It is also a satellite event of the “Tsukuba Conference 2021” to be held in late September.

Anyone is welcome to join so we are looking forward to your participation.

Outline of Tsukuba Global Science Week (TGSW) 2021

Period of the event : September 6 (Mon.) - 11 (Sat.) (6 days) , Some sessions will be held after October.

Venue: Online

Language: English

Participation fee: Free

Registration: Please register in advance on the following TGSW2021 official website.

<https://tgsw.tsukuba.ac.jp/>

Others:

- Videos introducing each session can be viewed on the Movies page of the official website.
- The video of President Nagata's opening remarks will be available on demand from September 6 on the official website.
- Registration for Tsukuba Conference 2021 is now open. Please check it out as well.

Tsukuba Conference official website: <https://tsukuba-conference.com/>